Course Registration Policies and Procedures

- If classes are full, students should keep trying online until the start of the quarter for possible openings.
- Core CLIT classes are restricted to CLIT majors during registration periods 1 & 2 with few exceptions. Permission and add code from the instructor are necessary.
- Students who do not attend the first week of classes run the risk of being dropped from the course. Please contact your instructor to avoid such an eventuality.
- Students who register and attend the first week and do not attend any other classes during the quarter run the risk of being dropped at the discretion of the instructor.
- Students are not added after the 2nd week of the quarter.
